English charm, wit, exceptional manners and a strange accent, Anthony's refined performances of mind reading and mind control captivates audiences leaving them intrigued and thoroughly entertained.

From an intimate demonstration for a small group to a full show for thousands, Anthony demonstrates the power of the mind in a compelling and thought provoking way.

Before migrating to Australia, Anthony was one of the UK's most sought after entertainers making a number of TV appearances and acting as consultant for The Geneva Theatre Company.

Arriving in Australia in 2009, Anthony took on the challenge of completing 40 shows in 40 nights in 40 locations around Australia to raise awareness for Breast Cancer. Covering over 12,000 km's Anthony appeared on over 70 Radio Stations and featured in excess of 100 newspapers.

Anthony also created a media frenzy during the 2011 Adelaide Fringe festival by riding a bike blindfolded through the busy city traffic.

Anthony's sophisticated approach to entertainment has found him rubbing shoulders with some of societies elite, being requested to perform at exclusive and corporate events throughout Australia.

Audiences are captivated from start to finish as Anthony weaves his way through the minds of audience members leaving them questioning, 'Just how is that possible?'

A natural entertainer with charisma and charm, Anthony will make for a truly memorable event.

'You see television shows about masterminds predicting things, being able to tell if you are lying or not and using science to blow you away with their intelligence, this is one of them in the flesh and he is oh so very impressive!'

AN EVENING OF THE UNEXPECTED

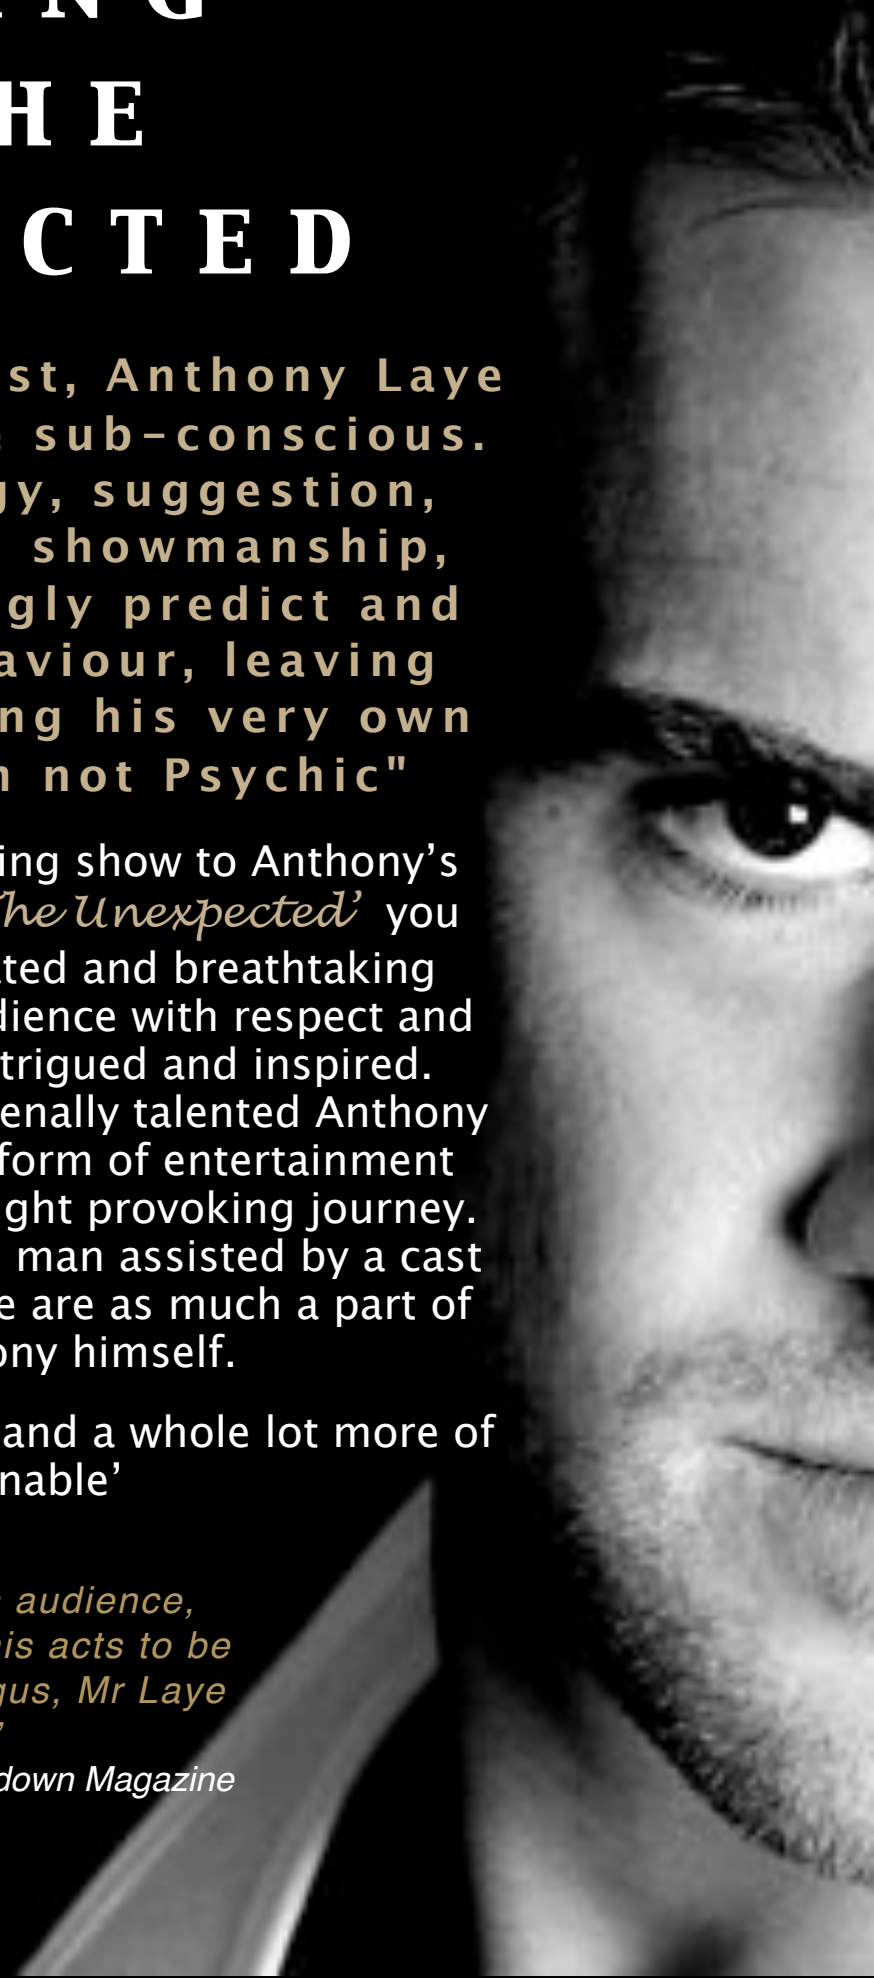

Entertainer & Mentalist, Anthony Laye packs a punch to the sub-conscious. Blending psychology, suggestion, sleight of hand and showmanship, Anthony can seemingly predict and control human behaviour, leaving audiences questioning his very own statement of "I am not Psychic"

From a 30 minute mind reading show to Anthony's full show 'An Evening Of The Unexpected' you will be booking a sophisticated and breathtaking performance, treating the audience with respect and intelligence leaving them intrigued and inspired. Delightfully witty and phenomenally talented Anthony presents a ground breaking form of entertainment taking the audience on a thought provoking journey. Not a one-man show, but one man assisted by a cast of many because the audience are as much a part of the show as Anthony himself.

'Quite a bit of the unexpected and a whole lot more of the unexplainable'

'Continually interacting with his audience, using simple props and proving his acts to be proper and not misleading or bogus, Mr Laye is simply captivating'

-Lowdown Magazine

‘Amazing show. I found this to be extremely entertaining and amazing with what Anthony could actually do. He gets the crowd involved well and keeps the audience captive the whole time. I have seen a similar show to this before but was nothing compared to Anthony’s show. I recommend anyone to go and see it, even skeptics will enjoy this one ’

ROVING ENTERTAINMENT

Imagine if you will, having thoughts seemingly plucked from your head or having your actions predicted before you make them.

Using a subtle blend of psychology, misdirection sleight of hand and showmanship, Anthony has developed an entirely different kind of act that makes his audiences question, 'what is he actually capable of?'

People will laugh and shake their heads in disbelief, some people will be shocked to silence but one thing is for sure, Anthony's performance touches his audience on a personal level, leaving them thinking, 'if mind reading is possible it must look like this.'

Whatever hospitality plans you have for your next event, having Anthony perform up close and personal will get guests talking and creating a buzz, generating a memorable event that will be talked about weeks, months even years later..

Cocktail party to a Gala Dinner, Anthony will move freely between your guests, interacting with each other building new relations and strengthening existing.

With a sophisticated and professional approach, Anthony treats his audiences with respect and intelligence ensuring they feel empowered not alienated.

A dazzling effort from first time Fringer but obviously seasoned performer. Anthony commands the audience easily with his natural charm and presence. Witty banter is weaved throughout some incredible mindreading tricks which are in fact, as Anthony explains, all about reading micro-signals. Anthony Laye encourages the audience not to consider him a psychic or his show, a magic act. Whatever the case it will still leave a lasting impression as you scratch your head and wonder how the heck he did it. Be prepared for a pretty shocking finale.

An amazing performance at breakneck speed. I was mesmerised within the first five minutes and couldn't take my eyes off the stage all night. The intermission was the only thing that stopped my head from exploding! If you are looking for a tacky magic show then look elsewhere, Anthony Laye is the real deal.

This show has left me wanting to book and see it all over again... I came out feeling blown away.. the ending is an absolute mind spinner!!! Anthony captivated all of us, the whole performance kept us on the edge of our seats.. loved the russian roulette!! Everyone should book and see this 5 star act, the show has to be the best I have seen this week.. FANTASTIC!!!

Anthony Laye, what can I say.

Saw him at the caravan, and couldn't keep away.

Went to see his show, thinking it might blow.

He blew alright, blew me away!

He's a ridiculously talented man, it's a great show!

I have nothing more to say.

DirtySanchez

Awesome show! The Russian Roulette act was unbelievable. This is a definite "must see"!
